The Cambridge Historic District - SW Expansion Area consists primarily of small frame single-family residences constructed in the early twentieth century. They are comparable in massing, scale, set back and integrity to the properties within the National Register listed Cambridge Historic District adjacent to this area. The boundaries of the district may be modified upon further evaluation and research.

This two and one-half story frame Victorian eclectic house is a contributing resource to the Cambridge Historic District - SW Expansion Area. It retains historic details such as the corbelled brick chimney, wide wood cornice, and frame L-shaped porch with Doric columns. It retains sufficient integrity to be a contributing resource to the district. It fits with its massing, Scale and setback.
